Mrs. Robinson to Sing PropertyGuys.com Song in St. Albert, ON

Former Analyst Graduates from PropertyGuys.com University

September 2, 2011 - Moncton, NB: Home sellers in the Edmonton suburbs will soon have a new Private Sale Professional to look to for guidance in the rapidly changing world of 21st century real estate. Ken LeBlanc, president of PropertyGuys.com Inc., announced today Canada's leading private sale franchise network is expanding operation in the Edmonton area to the city of St. Albert with a brother-sister team.

"Chad Bowen has secured his second PropertyGuys.com franchise license and his sister, Shelley Robinson will lead day-to-day operations in St. Albert. Shelley is anxious to be part of the wave of growth we are experiencing in Northern Alberta", said LeBlanc. "We have a number of franchises in the Edmonton region making serious noise in the market as our unique combination of local expertise and online tools and technology entices more home sellers to our program. Shelley is raring to go and utilize her passion for selling a home the PropertyGuys.com way in St. Albert".

Robinson enjoyed a successful career in retail and as a marketing analyst with PepsiCo before dedicating her time to raising three children. Robinson is thrilled with the opportunity her brother has provided, saying, "I can't wait to dive in and work with Chad and all the other neighboring franchisees. We think this is a great way to restart my professional career, and also bring home owners more choices for selling their home and keeping more of their home equity".

Married to Vic, Shelley is described by her brother as being an avid New York Yankee and Derek Jeter fan, who will bring the same level of enthusiasm to building relationships and providing great customer service. Mrs. Robinson recently attended training with other new franchise owners at PropertyGuys.com University (PGU) and plans to launch full time operations in St. Albert as well as neighboring communities Spruce Grove and Stony Plain later this month.
