

Mr. Lube Canada names Stuart Suls as President & CEO

VANCOUVER, Dec. 6, 2011 /CNW/ - Canada's leading quick lube provider, Mr. Lube Canada, today announced that its Board of Directors has named Stuart Suls as President and Chief Executive Officer.

Stuart Suls joined Mr. Lube Canada as the Chief Financial Officer & Executive Vice-President in February 2008 and has successfully managed the company since January 2010 as President and Chief Operating Officer.

"We are fortunate to have someone of Stuart Suls' calibre and franchise background continue to lead and implement our growth strategy" said Mike Cordoba, Chairman of the Board of Mr. Lube Canada. "Over the past four years, Stuart's dedication and commitment to our employees, franchisees, partners, suppliers and board members have made a positive impact on our organization. He is a strong communicator who is customer focused with deep leadership capabilities."

Stuart Suls' career includes 25 years of experience in senior finance and leadership roles in the franchise industry with Arby's, Ryder Truck Rental and General Mills Restaurants. His credentials also include a CPA designation and MBA from Duke University, North Carolina.

With a strong focus on growth, customer service and franchise profitability, Stuart Suls and his management team are poised to lead Mr. Lube Canada in its vision to become a best in class franchisor of automotive services.
