

Budget Blinds Seeking Franchisees in Quebec

Budget Blinds, North America's leading window covering franchise and CFA Franchisees' Choice Designee, is now licensing in the Province of Quebec. There are currently over 90 Budget Blinds franchises operating in Canada. The company, which will celebrate its 20th year in business in 2012, has prepared marketing materials for the new franchisees, including a dual language website at www.BudgetBlinds.ca, so franchisees can hit the ground running.

ORANGE, Calif. (PRWEB) November 10, 2011 -- Budget Blinds announced today that it is actively seeking franchisees in the Province of Quebec.

"Budget Blinds is ready to start franchising in Quebec," said Chad Hallock, CEO and co-founder of Budget Blinds, which will celebrate its 20th anniversary in 2012.

There are over 90 Budget Blinds franchises operating in Canada. Hallock said the first franchise in Quebec is scheduled to open in December, 2011.

"Entering the Quebec marketplace is a learning experience, but we have worked closely with our local vendors to make sure our Quebec franchisees are primed for success. We feel the opportunity is enormous," said Hallock.

New franchisees will have access to a dual language website at www.BudgetBlinds.ca as well as plenty of advertising collateral to market their small local businesses to their prospective customers.

"We're looking for franchisees with positive attitudes who are ready to take control of their futures and escape the cubicle for good," said Jonathan Thiessen, vice president of franchise licensing for Budget Blinds.
