On Saturday, October 22, 2011 Giant Tiger Port Hope will hold a charity barbecue to celebrate the official grand opening of its store in Port Hope, Ontario. The 15,000 square foot store is set to open at 145 Peter Street.

Doors open for Saturday's grand opening at 8 a.m. after a ribbon cutting and speeches. As community is at the core of the Giant Tiger brand, a charity barbecue offering a hot dog and a drink for one dollar will be held during the day, with all proceeds raised to support Northumberland United Way.

Store Manager Peter Hrdlicka states, "Our Giant Tiger team is committed to raise funds to help local organizations and what better way to do this than while we are celebrating the grand opening of the store with our Port Hope community."

The fun-filled day will have plenty of free activities for customers of all ages including gift card giveaways to the first one hundred customers in store, entertainment, music, face painting, balloons, treats, temporary tiger tattoos, in-store specials, and even a visit from the Giant Tiger himself!

"We are very excited about our brand new store here in Port Hope," says Peter Hrdlicka, Port Hope Store Manager. "Customers in and around Port Hope will find amazing low prices they have come to expect from Giant Tiger in one convenient destination for fashion clothing, groceries, and everyday basic needs. Giant Tiger is guest friendly with wider aisles and new treasures to discover every day. We are looking forward to celebrating this special day with our local community while raising money for Northumberland United Way and we look forward to your support."
